

Rev. Dr. Anastasia Holman

Rev. Dr. Anastasia Holman is an ACPE Certified Educator, Board Certified Chaplain, and ordained Elder in the AME Zion Church. As a Scholar-Practitioner, she serves as Director of Chaplaincy and Spiritual Care Education for the IU Health System. Dr. Holman holds degrees from Christian Theological Seminary (DMIN, MDiv), Indiana Wesleyan University (MBA), and Indiana State University (BS). She is Co-Faculty for the Religion, Spirituality, and Medicine Scholarly Concentration at the IU School of Medicine and a faculty member with the Daniel F. Evans Center for Spiritual and Religious Values in Healthcare. She is an Affiliate Professor of Pastoral and Spiritual Care at BSK Theological Seminary. Her leadership includes service on the REM Community of Practice board for ACPE, the Power of One board, the Executive Committee and Advisory Council for CMR, the Christian Theological Seminary Trustee Board, and the Leadership Council for the Compelling Preaching Initiative at the University of Indianapolis.