

Rev. Dr. Joty Tavares Allison

Rev. Dr. Joty Tavares Allison currently serves as Associate Pastor at the historic Witherspoon Presbyterian Church in Indianapolis, Indiana, where his ministry is rooted in justice, pastoral care, prophetic witness, and the transformative power of the Gospel. A graduate of Morehouse College, Dr. Allison continued his theological formation at Emory University's Candler School of Theology and earned the Doctor of Ministry degree from United Theological Seminary. His scholarship and ministry center the prophetic voice of the Black Church through a contemporary theological lens focused on justice, inclusion, liberation, and public engagement.

Dr. Allison's vocational journey spans congregational ministry, nonprofit leadership, advocacy, fundraising, and corporate experience. His work reflects a commitment to building spiritually grounded, socially conscious communities responsive to the evolving needs of the broader public. A gifted preacher, teacher, and community leader, Dr. Allison is passionate about helping the Church cultivate spaces of healing, belonging, faithful discipleship, and courageous public witness.
